

1 Recommendation for API usage

During normal operation a Timetables client requests the necessary number of hourly time slices of the current timetable for a specific station. Then the full changes for that station are requested and integrated with the previously received planned data from the timetable. For subsequent requests recent changes should be used to save bandwidth. The suggested frequency to request recent changes is 30 seconds.